CUSTODY CASE WORKSHEET

CUSTODY TOPICS AND QUESTION GUIDE ACTIVITIES WITH CHILD (REN)

This worksheet asks that you provide information and comments regarding many aspects of your children's care. It also gives you a rough idea of things that might come up in court or in negotiations.

You should begin now to organize your comments in the format set out in the Worksheet. You will find that in large part these comments will overlap those made from day to day in your journal. This is fine, but you should also feel free to note any past events or actions which would bear upon the topics listed on the Worksheet. Also, please consider when preparing your comments whether any photographs or similar means might be available to illustrate your points.

In short paragraphs that correspond with letters A through T and numbers 1 through 148, comment on the following area. This guideline will be roughly equivalent to the areas that are considered in any custody case. It cannot be emphasized strongly enough as you read the following categories to fully list examples of past and present, with dates.
